

HOWARD DEE

BIOGRAPHY

Originating from Surrey, UK, Howard Dee boasts international acclaim as a chart-filling songwriter, recording artist, multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, and music producer. Raised amidst a vibrant lineage of musicians, dancers, actors, comedians, and entertainers, Howard's path into the music industry was destined from the start.

After spending years performing as a professional guitarist, pianist, writer, and singer, Howard's musical journey took a fortuitous turn when his original music caught the attention of Stock, Aitken, and Waterman, the masterminds behind chart-topping sensations such as Rick Astley, Kylie Minogue, and Sonya. Signing a recording contract with SAW's label marked a pivotal moment, opening doors to ongoing collaborations with a diverse array of esteemed international artists, writers, bands, and producers. These collaborations included recipients of the prestigious Ivor Novello award, producers with triple platinum status, and an X-Factor winner.

As a songwriter, Howard has garnered international acclaim, with his songs being released with leading labels such as Warner, Universal Music, Blanco y Negro, and Sony. Additionally, he has performed his music live on national television and radio.

"A tenacious and inspirational musician" - The Guardian

Howard's achievements showcase his remarkable prowess and versatility

Released his self-produced album "Unfulfilled Finale," earning critical acclaim and front-page coverage in The Guardian.

Reached the semi-finals of the UK's Songwriting Competition with his pop ballad "The Only Ones."

Became the voice of LG's global TV advert campaign featuring Lewis Hamilton, garnering millions of views on social media.

Achieved success with both indie and major labels, including a top ten hit on Beatport Hype chart with "Change" and "Journey Through Music." Collaborated with DJ Tim Bayer and Daniel Dust on "Blue Hotel," released under Universal Music, featured on Spotify's "Car Music 2022" compilation album alongside industry heavyweights like Becky Hill and Meduza.

Collaborated with Polish DJ/producers 'Komodo,' the talented team behind the 300 million streamed global hit "(I just) died in your arms), performing "Beautiful Girl" and "Fever" live on national TV, with the single releasing via Sony Music achieving number 4 on Hit-planet Charts.

Performed at the legendary Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club, the elegant Kimpton Fitzroy and London's largest and most prominent, The Grosvenor Hotel for the renowned "Children with Cancer Awards," sharing the limelight with icons like The Spice Girls and Chris Eubank, fulfilling a dream of performing alongside his musical idols, The Drifters.

LISTEN

BEAUTIFUL GIRL

SEPTEMBER RAIN

THE ONLY ONES

ALL THAT MATTERS

TOUGH PEOPLE

BLUE HOTEL

WICKED GAME

"Howard is very talented, he deserves to be very, very successful"

- Mike stock (Rick Astley/Kylie Minogue/Sonia - PWL)

"A wonderful storyteller merging modernity and timelessness, Howard's voice and songs evoke genuine emotion."

- Tony Hiller, Triple Ivor Novello Award-winning songwriter

LIVE PERFORMANCE SHOWREEL

Contact: www.howarddee.com/contact